

Thank you to all who support The Hub@BA15 which continues to offer food to the Bradford on Avon community area and the foodbank has been well stocked by the local population and supplemented by Fareshare deliveries during Lockdown.

We are so grateful to all who donate time food and money, this has allowed the Hub to give out 700 food parcels since the beginning of Lockdown

The Hub in Church Street has now re-opened its additional services, with limitations imposed by coronavirus - the computers, debt and welfare benefit advice as well as some support are available again. However there are less volunteers and restrictions on numbers within the building exist.

The Annual Report (2019-20) is attached to this email although the financial report is still with the auditor.

You are invited to the Annual General Meeting via zoom on Thursday 29th October at 7pm. Paul Robertson the co-ordinator of the Bradford on Avon Community Volunteers will be the speaker

David Jewell is inviting you to a scheduled Zoom meeting.
